Cayambis Music Press Signs Argentine Composer to Five Year Contract

Music Publisher Increases Its Latin American Sheet Music Catalog

Blacksburg, VA: Today, Cayambis Music Press, a music publishing company specializing in classical sheet music from Latin America, is pleased to announce that Argentine composer Federico Echave has been added to the company's list of international composers. Echave, who studied music in Argentina, Brazil and Spain, is currently a member of the Art and Design faculty at the National University in Cuyo, Argentina. He also belongs to several groups dedicated to artistic investigation.

"The quality of Federico's music was amply demonstrated not only by the unanimous decision by our editorial board but also by the fact that it is already being performed internationally."

Federico brings several compositions to the Cayambis Music Press catalog, including some very attractive works for wind instruments. Federico said, "I'm honored to have had my works accepted for publication by such a respected company as Cayambis Music Press."

John Walker, owner of Cayambis Music Press, said, "The quality of Federico's music was amply demonstrated not only by the unanimous decision by our editorial board but also by the fact that it is already being performed internationally."
